*Rich Concerns Kick Against Ordinance Compelling
Auto Trucks To Carry Life Saving Device—Healey
Says They Must All Obey the Law.*

Big business howled loud and long in the council chamber hearing on auto truck fenders today. Men from our biggest trusts, which own autos and will have to buy fenders, registered a kick against the ordinance which asks protection for the millions who walk the street.

Armour & Co., Consumers Co., Hartman Furniture Co., Chicago Telephone Co., The American Express Co., representing the express firms and the Chicago Truck Users' Ass'n, which takes in all of the auto concerns which fight fenders for trucks, protested to Chief Healey,

They asked that the ordinance be not enforced. Healey answered that it would be enforced and that the little fellow who must walk would be protected.

In June, 1914, after hanging fire for months, an ordinance requiring fenders for auto trucks as a lifesaving device was passed. No action was taken until about the first of this year when fender manufacturers were asked to demonstrate their product and to receive the "O. K." of the chief of police if an efficient fender was produced.

For seven months three engineers
